My name is Ixtzel Reynoso. I grew up in Sacramento, California, until I was 15.

In the fall of 2012 my family of four moved to Clarksburg, California. During that fall I continued to attend Natomas Charter School Performing and Fine Art Academy in Sacramento but transferred to Delta High School on January 7, 2013. During the Summer of 2013 I volunteered at the Clarksburg library. That fall I became a member of the Future Farmers of America chapter at Delta high and began to raise lambs. The summer of 2014 I worked the last weeks of the Bartlett pear season at the Elliot family packing shed in Courtland, California. I also began my term as Student Representative on the Friends of the Clarksburg Library Board. I graduated Delta High School in May of 2015 and continued on to the University of the Pacific the next fall. I expect to graduate in the spring of 2019.
